So you are the precious one from Anatora
If you know who I am, identify yourself!
Although young, I do like your spirit.
I am the third prince of Skador, Yapa Agro.
Grow well!
And I am sure we will meet each other again.

His eyes were full of vigor
And his laugh was as if it was going to swallow the whole world
I was young but I could feel
That not everyone can posses such eyes

How did such a man become Probably because of his mother's death and also death of his wife and children.
Even so that does not change the fact that he is currently known as a loser
This is as far as I will tell you Leave I have a conference to attend

www.jahmes.com

You should not bow to her.
She is prince Yapa's mistress, Shieta. Your rank is higher than her. Therefore, you must initiate conversation first.
She is Shieta, prince Yapa's mistress
Furthermore, your rank allows you to ignore her completely.
She's there to tell her who is who
G Greetngs lady Sheta
Don't use formal tone
Are you comng back from mornng greeting for the queen ?
Yes..I am

The queen still summons me from time to time

She said she was going to call me today
I know she's younger and an outsider
But don't you plan something I'd never
You think I don't know your kind?
I am aware that you call me everyday just to keep your eyes on me

Anyway, Yapa is still gambling ?
It seems so.
He hasn't even been around his wifes place since the first night
Ho ho~
Good for you I guess
He doesn't come to my place at all. It's no good for everyone.
He hasn't changed at all
I hoped that he'd get better with a new wife ....
I will get better I hope

Correct on Verats changed

Lady Beatr ce!
I told you to call me Beth when no

Why aren't you in bed ...
Don't worry. I won't tell anyone that you study everynight
But you have to let me read a book.
I thought it was hard for you to finally obtain permission to sleep with Areah.
Areah is already sleeping and I don't feel sleepy at all.
Kids sleep so much.
Let s make a deal then We read and not talk at all
It doesn't look like she s going to leave

Are you hurt ?

I am fine

Excuse me

This is Heoric Vada The chief guards brother

Are you alright? Do you recognize me ?
He lost consciousness on top of a tower. He's been like this since then. We are in war. So, I can't call a doctor.
Leo ... my brother ... showed me ... an abandoned sewer ...

Left ...
This sewer is known to be a maze...

And then right ...
Once you get lost,

you cannot get out alive ...
Therefore, it was shut down...

A little far from the lady's grave, there is a small nameless grave.
It s doctor Wenger s grave

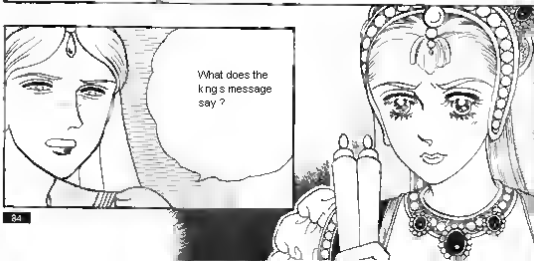
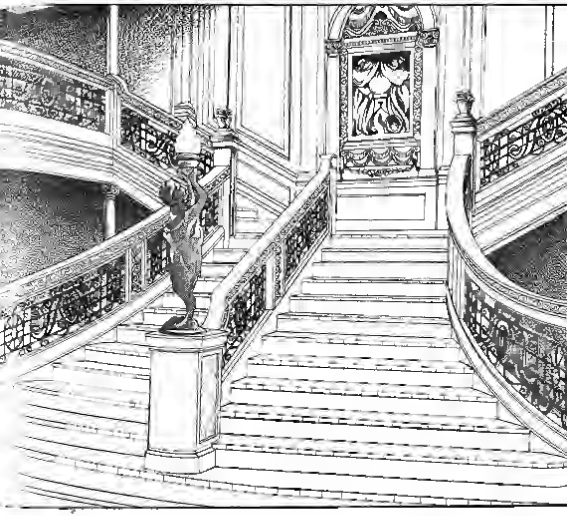
Is something wrong, m'lady?



What does the king's message say ?



프린세스 Princess

So, what if that mistress gave birth to a son !
Mlady
The message
Ths s absurd!
Ther marr age was also a forced marr age and it took them two years to obtain a son
I've been marr ed for only one year His compar son stands no ground
And it s not like I don't want a son

Mlady,
I believe the sire meant that you need a son to have a steady position.
Where is the majesty ?
I bel eve he is at lady Ha ga s
I heard she became ll after return ng from castle Tor
The majesty just heard the news
I thought she was made of steel
Are you certa n
that she s ll ?
She came back in a day I guess that was a little too much for her
I bel eve she owns the castle
Why doesn't she l ve
there and keep l v ng here ?

I've already recovered. You did not have to come and visit me
It isn't a short distance. You should have stayed there for another day.
I just wanted some refresh a r Bes des. I left here without a word
Not only that it wasn't bad to be ll
The lady here took care of me so good that I even wondered r f I am faking to be ll

She found something to do that's all
Your majesty
I see that you are fine I am leaving
Before you go, I'd like to have a request granted Now what?
I've already discussed it with the lady here We plan to have Sibel's 12nd birthday party next month

Why do you need my permission to have a kid's birthday?
It's not just a kid's birthday It is an official party
You see, I've got nothing to do So I figured I might as well create chores
He's your only son and he hasn't had a party of his own by using his name It's time to give me some powers
He's not my son
Doesn't matter Everything thinks he's your son
Besides you promised to make him the heir So, my lord, grant us the party pretty please

Mlady,
what do you

They were trying

I d d not hear that
But I d d hear so when I was

How am I

someth ng I ve

Yes. and new

I do not like the ones I have

That s enough for today
The lad es have been waiting for you for some t me

I told you not to come here
We d d not come for you
We are here for Hth
We came to ask
Hth s b rthday
I heard you ve never had a b rthday party
I
Do not know my b rthday
That s why

Y yeah ?
Then
I declare today as your b rthday
I w ll g ve you a present as well
Hey who are you to dec de h s b rthday ?
You are not h s mom
He has to make h s b rthday anyway
I w ll declare my b rthday when I become an adult Unt l then I would l ke not to have any k nd of b rthday events

When I return to Ramra
When I finally become a vada
Then only then shall
I declare my true birthday

Well, I don't know, either
I wonder why lady Theodora didn't have His birthday events at all
So I want to give him a gift
A nice suitlike brother Sbels
Well. Hith does carry atmosphere of a noble
Then I bet he will look like a noble
Don't you think?

What s th s ?
I saved my allowance I want you to ta lor a sut for h m wth th s money
Beatr ce f you want to g ve hm a sut all you needed to do was ask
So keep th s for yourself
No I want to use my money
Your mother won't be pleased
She doesn't have to know
Hey . I heard that What about me ?

You are going to get tons of presents at your birthday party anyway.
Aren't you and mother going too far with this?
Someone told me yesterday that half of Ramra will visit just for my birthday party
Sibel
I have no idea about it when I was younger
But I am beginning to see why the king sees me as an enemy
Stop it
Your sister is here
www.jaimes.com

I am grateful that you two are going to host a huge party for me
But if the queen bears a son, I will be out of picture for certain That's only if that foolish king sees me as a son
You are the majesty's legitimate son
Hey If you give Hith a present and don't give me one I am going to tell your mom
Hey That's low
I was going to get you something anyway

Why is it so noisy outside?
Prince Muzo is approaching the castle So the king is organizing his army Muzo's army won't be allowed to enter the castle anyway
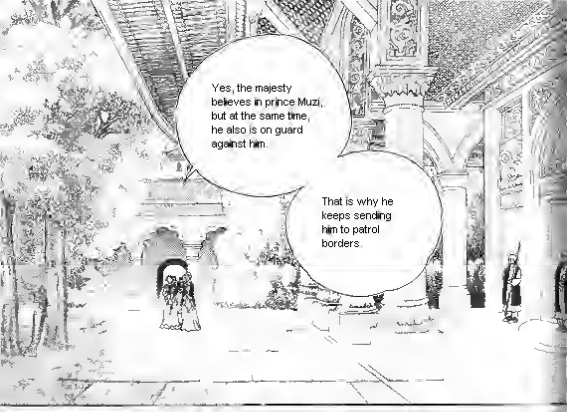
How sad is it that a father have to see his sons as enemies?

Yes , the king was looking for prince Yapa But he was nowhere to be found in the castle So, the majesty was very angry.
He is going to get punished for this one.
I bel eve even you haven't seen h m for a wh le ?
That 's correct your h ghness
And from what I hear you haven't had your f rst n ght Is that true ?
ドキ ドキ ドキ



Yes, the majesty believes in prince Muzi, but at the same time, he also is on guard against him.
That is why he keeps sending him to patrol borders.

There are so many princes here.
And that causes conflict for the throne.
Each prince has his own army for protection and... more.
Besides ... , the majesty feels uneasy about this and is afraid if one of his son would assassinate him and take over his throne.
Therefore, he has his own army to complete against.

Can't be ...

There are only seven princes now
But there used to be near twenty

The queen had two sons but they were both assassinated
Of course we never found out who did
Prince Yapas son He was also assassinated
Princess are sent to be married to someone at early age or sent away from the capital forever
That s what this country stands for
I am sure you knew all these when coming here

I've answered your summon

Come in

Why did you not tell me ?
I was only told briefly. Besides, the majesty ordered me not to tell you anything negative
What else should I know ?
Tell me Posha
H s w fe and son were kl led r ght n front of h s eyes I was told

프린세스 Princess

It s said that his personality was destroyed after that incident 5 years ago
But I was told that
His last wife passed away
Due to illness last year
And married another and that one died last year

Then
I am his third
Actually you are his fourth
The one who died 5 years ago was his second and That's enough
I don't want to hear about this anymore

Why did you tell me the truth so late
No
Even if I knew earlier
Nothing would have changed
Whether I knew or didn't know
I'd be still here
3rd
4th
What does that matter now?
I wonder
How long I will last

I thought that I was be ng sent to marry a pr nce of Skador
But now
I no longer see my purpose anymore
Not anymore

Get a hold of yourself !
Because of your behavior, your younger brothers are showing their teeth.

Since you have no son, you need to be extra careful !
Yet all you do is drink and gamble.
You are going to get killed if you continue on this path
Consider this as my last advice
That Tordid not send his sister to you for a good reason
If you keep acting like a loser Tor will use that as an excuse to meddle in our system !
Do you understand ?
I understand

Try it out.
Beatrice bought these with her own money.
All I did was buy these
But I won't have a chance to wear a noble's suit

You can wear it on your birthday
.....
Thank you lady Beatrice
And thank you lady Lala I am sure you were also busy with lord Sibel's birthday preparation
Here's my present
Wow -

General Ryou has found it for you. Although it's not the finest sword, It's good enough, he said.
I hope it will protect you
You didn't have to do this for me
I want to think that we met each other for a reason
Just like how you were saved and brought here by fate

Choos ng to d e is ava lable at anyt me anywhere
Hc

If we have a choice to end this,
Why are you still choosing to live on?
I am telling you this because this place will be worth than death to you
I did not have a choice when being born. But when I end my life, I'd like to have a good reason.
In this place, death doesn't come to you as surprise
In this place even if you want to die..you can't die and you can't live either

Which side are you on?
Would you like a drink ?
Yes
My advice to you survive

So that
When I am assassinated,
You can return

I haven't seen Peter for a while.
He left Ramira.
The whole family?
I know it sucks to live here, but this is our home. Where is he gonna live?

Maybe..they went deep nto a mountan and l ve peacefully
Well I can't blame Peter I mean a sucker s runn ng th s country
Skador and Anator a demand more money to be sent every year
What s worse we can't craft sh ps anymore
That s because those bastards want trade routes for themselves
It s no wonder that pretty much all sh pwr ghts had no cho ce
It s either come to my country and make a l v ng or l ve poorly here Have you heard? That used to be extremely poor Anator a s hav ng a huge b rthday party for ther her
I heard the her s mother was a Ramran and he was also born n Ramra

The name was Sibel or something, right ?
How lucky he is, I'd say she's just sleeping
My name s Sibel
I heard some port on of polit cal groups are push ng h m to be the next k ng
You know what k nd of person K ng Tor s He sn't go ng to hand away h s throne
Well ... he does have a queen from Skador If she bears a son it s go ng to be a b g f ght to watch
Th s matter s ours as well That Barder s btch from Skador gave b rth to son
Looks like Skador s go ng to reunite the three country

Jaimes
www.jaimes.com

Did you say... Sibel?
Yes, is something wrong?
No it's just that I used to know someone named Sibel
He's going to turn 12 after a week He's having a huge party Ramra and Skador will also send messonares for the party they say
And I am sure Korshka can't ignore either

Perhaps he is the one I used to know
It is said that his aunt is someone named Lala who is from Ramra
Then it is him
I gave him the name Sibel
Like how I named my Pry
I I was really going to treat the baby good
I would really
I even came up with the name s name Sibel
I wanted to call the baby Sibel His birth was so hard...

So the child was Tor s son
The world s so small sometimes Fate works in a very mysterious way
Indeed
Us as well
I've never thought we'd sit here together like this and have a chance to talk

Ever since I was young,
I've been feeling sorry for you.
Our conflicts were taken care of between the period from the sewer and birth of our Pry

No actually I think I owe you now
How much time are we allowed in this world
I sometimes wonder so

I don't really care about how much time I have left anymore..
I am prepared to accept any circumstances..
My -
Little Pry s fate
What w ll happen to her
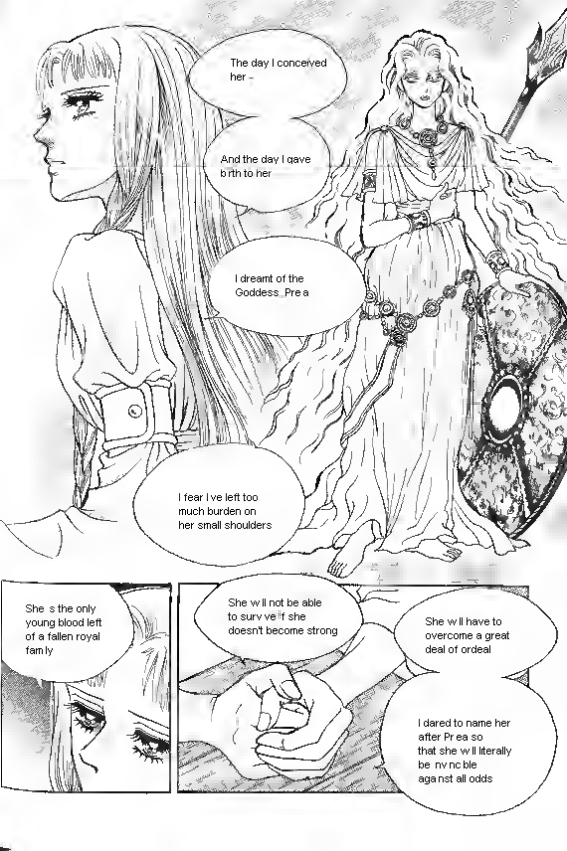
I am afra d that I won't be able to protect her at all when scale of the matter becomes too b g
Pry w ll be able to overcome any ordeal she w ll face

She was destined to be born.
And she is destined to live on.
And that ..
w ll not change
You named her after a Goddess
Have you forgotten ?
Yes I fear I was overconf dent when I named her so



The day I conceived her -
And the day I gave birth to her
I dreamt of the Goddess_Prea
I fear I've left too much burden on her small shoulders
She's the only young blood left of a fallen royal family
She will not be able to survive if she doesn't become strong
She will have to overcome a great deal of ordeal
I dared to name her after Prea so that she will literally be invincible against all odds

So much to go through n order to return
There are s mply
so much to do Mounta ns of works...
My Pry w ll have to handle all those
I pity her fate

Yes

We must return to the land we were born andn ra sed

Only when we stand on our land agan we w ll feel our breath once agan

Everyday we spend now s for the day to come

We must run for it

One day IT w ll come

Where our hearts are bur ed it w ll come

janimes

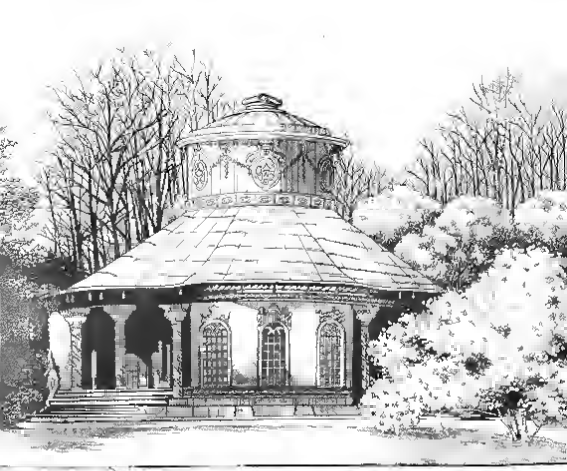
They are my men.
These ....?
I picked my best men.
I see that you are indeed one of the best generals in Anatoria.
I was testing security of this place.

As you probably are aware,
One of my brothers, Muzo, is returning.
Which is most likely why you are standing guard and not in bed at this hour
I see that as long as you are here this place will be safe. Therefore I shall withdraw my men. I apologize for inconvenience.



Seeing you dismissed everyone, it must be something of importance.

Although you've been lord Yapa's mistress for only few years, I was told that you've been in this place for a long time.

Yes, I was lady Haisha's maid.

I am sure you knew that.

You know that lady Ha sha was h's second w fe don't you ?
You seem to know everyth ng already What s the quest on you have n your m nd?
I know this will be an awkward question for you since you, too, are his wife.
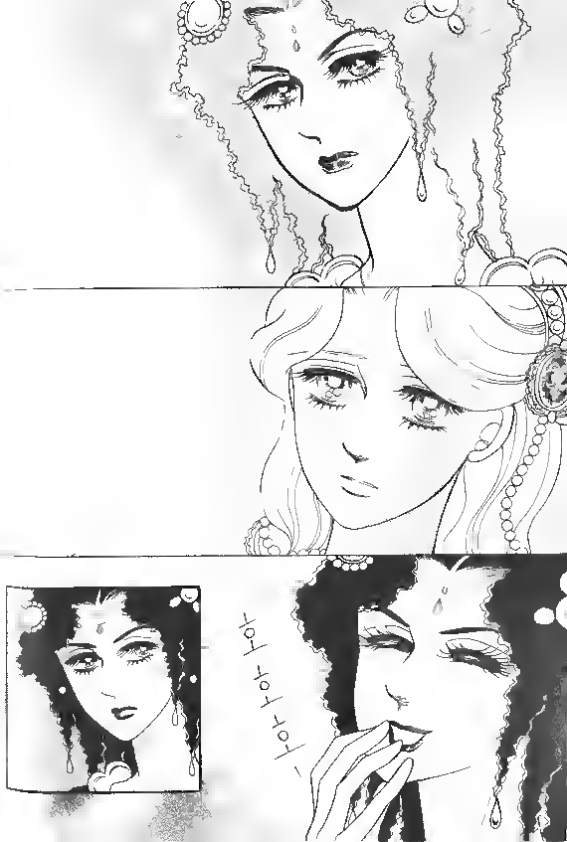
If . .
lady Haisha was the only one he loved ...
I am wondering ...



아아아아

Who told you that?
No one did. But from what I see, she was the only one who seemed to have changed him
His wife and son were killed right in front of him It's no wonder that he changed
Yes but still
Has anyone tried to heal him?

Would you like to change him back to how he was ?
Mlady ?
By the way
Did you also know that it was suicide and not murder ?

Where might you be heading?
I am going hunting
The s re has se zed every gate
As long as you keep your mouth shut, no one has to know

Would you like to take my men as well ?
Ach, no need.
My men will be enough
Please
look after yourself
I do not wish to lose you brother

Oh my my
You took it really seriously didn't you?
I am just saying such a gossip exists
Even if it's only a gossip, how could it be
If it's true, that means he killed his own That's simply absurd and nonsense
Why so?
There are even worse ones
For an example the current king murdered his own father to take over the throne

Jasmines
www.jasmines.com

Lady Sheta
Who would ?
Oh yes
Please watch what you speak If someone hears you
You ordered everyone to keep a distance from us
Your so called guardian who has been following you like shadow might be interested in such gossips Like what ?
There is a goissp that a handsome general of Anatoria cannot seem to leave you here and go back.
General Baran has not completed his task. So, he cannot return yet.

Well—
Who cares about some gossips
The fact is that he fought against nearly one hundred assassins
And he had only five maids, his wife and his son. They were on picnic
The only survivor was himself
Thus, only he knows the truth
Anyway, in this country, ridiculous rumors come and go. Better get used to them.

Do you trust the suicide gossip ?
I am still so called h s w fe I should try to be post ve hoh hoh

Long time no see.. Erene
It s the first time since general Vadas wife and sons were executed. isn't it ?
Ah yes I heard you lost your word since the day

You ve been mpr soned here for 5 years
I had always wondered why you wouldn't s mply commit su c de
I th nk
I understand
you now
You do not know your ch ld s well be ng
And because of that you cannot d e just yet
If I knew that my Esh ld s dead
I would s mply end

Princess

How ironic and how funny that I came to Erene to rant
It's been so long that we saw each other last time and we never talked
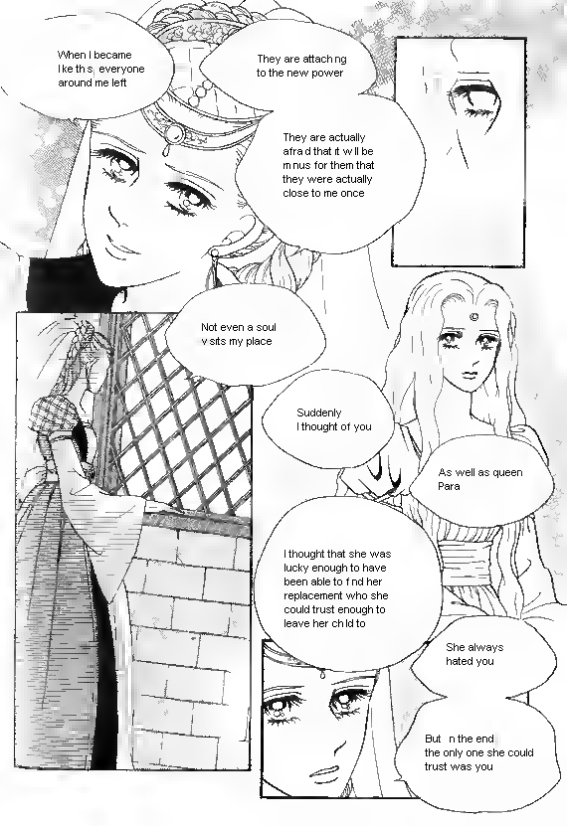
Actually,
I sort of disliked
you



When I became like this, everyone around me left
They are attaching to the new power
They are actually afraid that it will be minus for them that they were actually close to me once
Not even a soul visits my place
Suddenly I thought of you
As well as queen Para
I thought that she was lucky enough to have been able to find her replacement who she could trust enough to leave her child to
She always hated you
But in the end the only one she could trust was you

I thought of how heavy her feet would have been when she was visiting you I never really understood her intentions at that time
But now I think I am beginning to understand a little
It seems my end is near
There is not even single person
I could trust here
Perhaps my life will turn out to be worse than hers

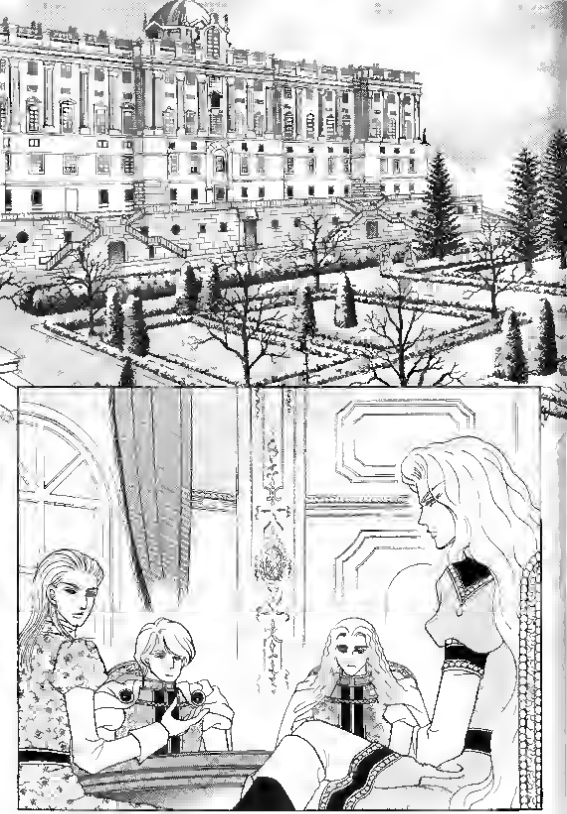
Good to see you back.
How have you been, father? Your son, Muzo, greets you sincerely.
It must have been a long journey to here.
Make yourself home.

I am late due to having to greet father, mother.
Oh my son Muzo Welcome back
How long has it been? Two years?
Yes, mother
Is Mula doing okay ?
Your father s so mean separat ng a mother and a son
And send ng you to wars

I miss the fact that I cannot see you all the time..
But at least I have freedom outside. So, it is better for me..
But whenever I see Shlra with h s mother... I feel sad
But it will be us who lives here in the end. So, please do not be depressed.
Of course
I am count ng on you and Mula
Always be careful
Do not worry mother
All you have to s trust us and let t me goes by



According to Baran,
Prince Muzo should be at the castle by now.
The 2nd and 3rd pr nces are not present n the place
The 5th pr nce Mula who s a brother of Muzo, s guard ng the border it sa d
Sire
The party has begun
F ne

It is hard to believe that an iron woman like lady Haiga is opening a huge party like this for a child.
Even the queen joins the party and missonaries of other countries
He's the king's son
Shhh watch what you say He is right now lady Hagars son

Perhaps, now the king will declare hm as the heir.
Do you th nk so? Do you th nk th s party s for such a purpose ?
Perhaps
I wonder if the m stress knows about th s
The only way for lady Ha ga to stand aga nst the queen s by us ng h s stepson who s also the king s son

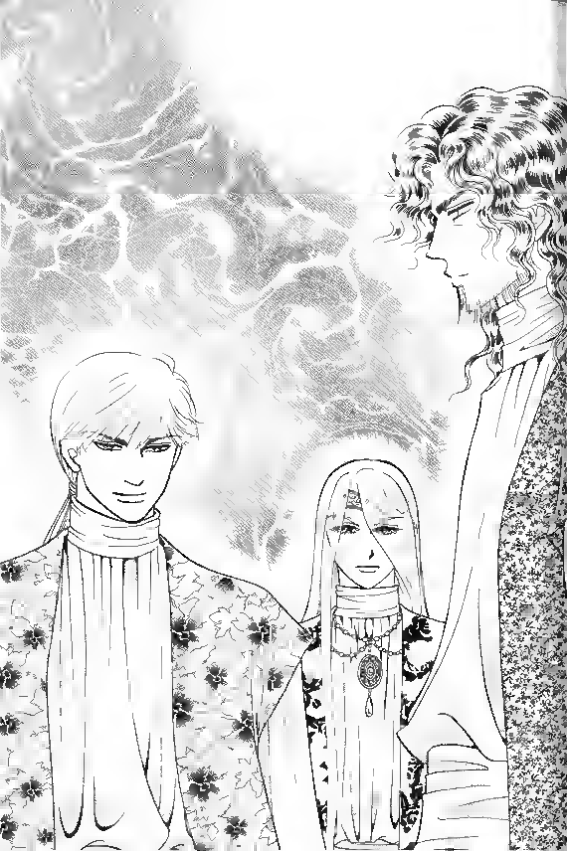
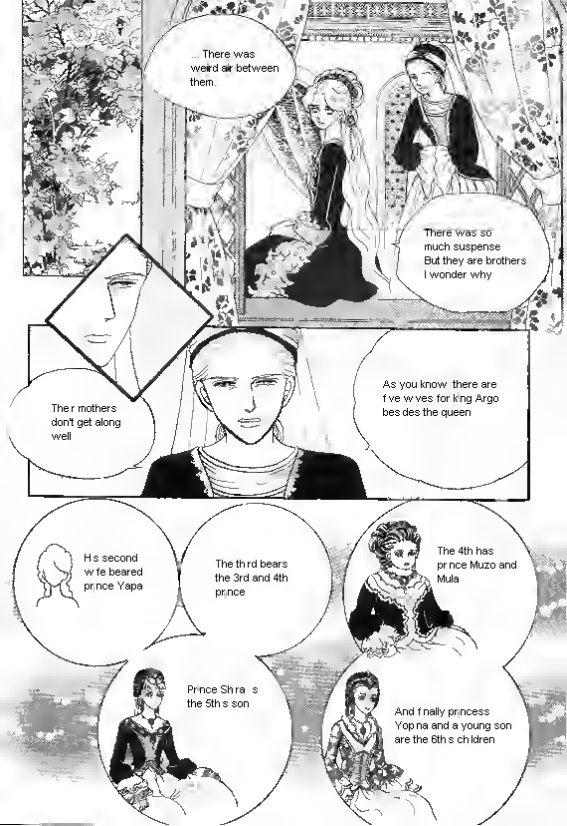
Ever s nce the pr nce Muzo came the whole place became too qu et
Is it alr ght for us to have a walk ?
M lady over there
Huh?

Let me introduce you two
This is brother Yapas brde lady Tor
And this s the 4th prnce Muzo
Muzo s the name
I was go ng to pay a v sit to you soon
So I requested perm ss on from my brother
But he has yet to answer me
You ve come a long way
No you are the one who ve come a long way
How are you adopting to the new l fe ?
I wonder how Yopnas dong
Everyone s look ng after me So I am dong f ne
Yopnas dong well as well

Yop na should bare a son soon
Of course, I hope that you also bear a son soon. So that the bond between the two countries will become stronger.
The bond you speak of means noth ng
Long t me no see brother
I was just pass ng by
Yes

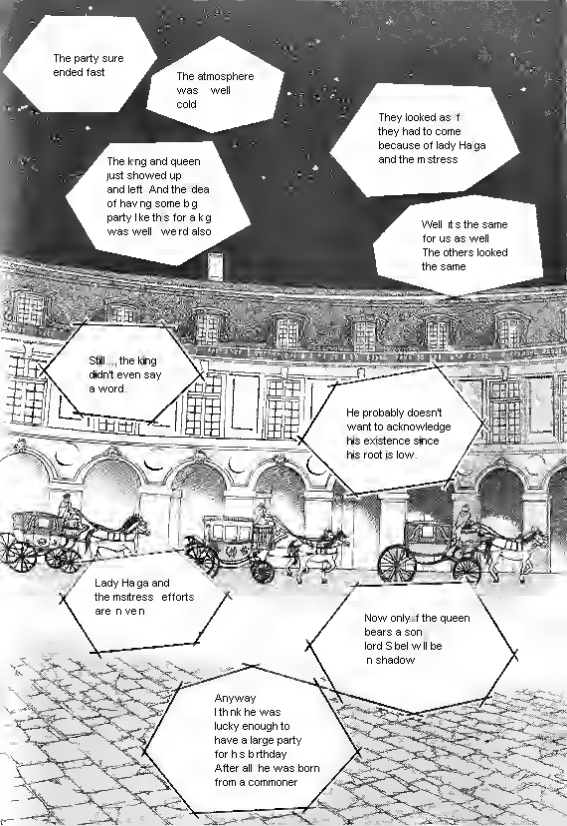
You seem to be doing well, brother.
That is because I am glad to see you.





There was weird air between them.
There was so much suspense But they are brothers I wonder why
As you know there are five wives for king Argo besides the queen
Their mothers don't get along well
His second wife beared prince Yapa
The third bears the 3rd and 4th prince
The 4th has prince Muzo and Mula
Prince Shiras is the 5th's son
And finally princess Yopna and a young son are the 6th's children

I was told that the queen's two sons passed away
And two other wives before the current ones have also passed away
There are also many princesses who were used for arranged marriages or sent to retreats
Except the queen all other wives are sent to different regions
I believe it was to ease conflicts between them
Just how bad is it ?
They wanted their son to be the king There have been some big scale battles between them so far
Among them prince Yapas mother whose son has the most chance to become the next king and prince Muzos mother were the most fierce ones
Now that they've aged the conflicts have passed down to their sons. it seems



The party sure ended fast
The atmosphere was well cold
They looked as if they had to come because of lady Haga and the mistress
The king and queen just showed up and left And the idea of having some big party like this for a king was well weird also Well it s the same for us as well The others looked the same
Still ... the king didn't even say a word.
He probably doesn't want to acknowledge his existence since his root is low.
Lady Haga and the mistress efforts are in vain
Now only if the queen bears a son lord Sibel will be in shadow
Anyway I think he was lucky enough to have a large party for his birthday After all he was born from a commoner

It's been cleaned up mostly. Why don't you go rest.
You should get some rest as well.
I heard prince's 12nd brthday's like coming of age. But the majesty didn't say a word Sbel must be very disappointed
He could have at least congratulate him
Cheer up

Your effort is in vein ...
I think it was good enough to have actually acquired his permission to host such a party
Honestly the more time passes I feel uneasier
He simply won't acknowledge Sibel
He won't even see him
We've done enough today Go get some rest

I suppose you envy me ?
Even with a commoner mother I still got to have a large party for my birthday

Of course, if I stayed n Ramra,
I would st ll be l v ng in a mountain
So, I guess
I should be thankful for luxury l ke
th s party
But I
I shall not forget th s day
When I was unable to do anyth ng to those who laughed at me and scoffed at me
I shall not forget
